

Unprecedented Value in Gas Industry Education

Event: Western Gas Measurement Short Course Roundtable

When: April 4th – April 5th, 2023

Where: Grand America Hotel - Salt Lake City, Utah

Register at: <https://www.wgmsc.org/2023roundtable>

Event Cost: $600 before February 1, $700 thereafter

A $100 discount will be applied to registration if hotel room is booked at host hotel

Hotel Cost: $279/night, plus taxes and room fees

Follow “Hotel Information” link from registration page to book your room

Must book room by March 6, 2023 to ensure pricing and availability

What’s Included?

- Keynote address by industry expert on Hydrogen Blending – NEW in 2023!
- Opportunity to ask questions and interact with industry experts on key issues facing natural gas transmission and distribution companies
- Eight vendor booth displays – NEW in 2023!
- Breakfast and lunch both days

Jin Zhang, Southern California Gas Company, is presenting the first ever keynote address at the Western Gas Measurement Short Course Roundtable event. Jin is a Senior Engineer on her company’s Hydrogen Blending strategy team. She has been managing and coordinating engineering activities leading to the successful development and execution of hydrogen blending demonstration projects. In addition to developing company standards and procedures covering hydrogen systems, Jin is a member of many industry working groups related to the topic.